

Ghias In The Movies

Keeping The Faith (2000)

Writer: Stuart Blumberg; Director: Edward Norton; Starring Ben Stiller, Edward Norton, Jenna Elfman, Anne Bancroft, Eli Wallach – and briefly, as a cool bit of set-dressing, a desk-top Karmann Ghia.

Comedy/drama/romance: Two friends, a priest and a rabbi, fall in love with the same woman they knew in their youth, but the religious position of both men denies them romance. It's Ghia-spotting fare for only the hawkst-eyed, but a charming and mildly entertaining movie.
